

We came home one eve. and the Carbon Monoxide detectors were going off. The oven was on, so we thought that is what was wrong. We turned it off and aired the house out for a couple of hours, then went to bed. At around midnight the Carbon monoxide detectors went off again. We figured out it was the fridge not the oven. We truly think it saved our lives.

8-17-18

Marty. Arie Miller

DUNDEE OH 44624